São Paulo

a field guide to eating, shopping and going out in the city

EAT SHOP DRINK LISTEN KNOW DON'TS HELP

MEET THE CITY

São Paulo, in numbers

11.9M
people in the city (IBGE 2026 est.), the largest city in the Southern Hemisphere

1554
founded on January 25 by Jesuit priests

#1
Brazil has the largest Japanese community outside Japan. Its heart is Liberdade, in São Paulo above sea level: warm days, cool nights. Bring a light jacket

GOOD TO KNOW

Paulistanos
Locals are called paulistanos. The city never really sleeps: dinner at 10 PM is normal, parties end at sunrise.

Sunday on Paulista
Avenida Paulista closes to cars on Sundays and turns into a giant open-air street party.

A city of immigrants
Italian, Japanese, Lebanese, Korean and Northeastern Brazilian cooking all live here, often on the same block.

Street art
Graffiti and murals are everywhere; walk Beco do Batman in Vila Madalena for the classic tour.

THE CREATIVE CITY

SPFW · Oct 13–18, 2026
Latin America’s biggest fashion week, since 1995, runs the same week you’re here.

Bienal de São Paulo
Created in 1951, the second-oldest art biennial in the world after Venice.

MASP
Lina Bo Bardi’s red-framed museum on Paulista, floating over a free public plaza.

Pride

The new Centro
Old downtown buildings now host the city’s hottest bars, restaurants and studios. Le Freak, Bar dos Arcos and Brim are all here.

BEFORE YOU GO

The basics

Everything you need in your pocket for the week.

HOME BASE

Rosewood São Paulo

Rua Itapeva, 435 · Bela Vista (Cidade Matarazzo)

Mata Città, Le Freak, Bar do Cofre and Bar dos Arcos are all a short ride away in the Centro.

GETTING AROUND

Uber or 99

The two ride apps everyone uses. 99 is the local one and works just like Uber. Download both before you land.

MONEY

Brazilian Real · R$

Cards (and Apple / Google Pay) work almost everywhere. Keep a little cash for small bars and street vendors.

FOOD DELIVERY

iFood

The most popular delivery app in Brazil. Uber Eats works too.

TIPPING

10% is on the bill

Restaurants add a 10% service charge ("serviço"). No need to tip on top.

STAY SHARP

São Paulo don’ts

The city is warm and welcoming. A few habits keep it that way.

01

Don’t: Phones near the hotel

The area around the hotel is great, which also makes it a target. Don’t walk around with your phone out on the street.

02

Don’t: Gold & chains on busy streets

Skip gold chains and flashy jewellery in crowded places like Avenida Paulista.

03

Don’t: Candy or water from drivers

Politely say no if a ride-app driver offers you candy or water.

04

Don’t: Cigarettes from strangers

Don’t accept cigarettes from people you don’t know.

05

Don’t: Kids on bikes around Paulista

Keep an eye out for young guys on bicycles around Avenida Paulista: phone snatching is their move.

06

Don’t: Check the card machine

When paying by card, always look at the amount on the machine before you tap or enter your PIN.
